

Evaluate political progress

rs21 resolves to reserve a part of the January 2017 membership meeting to evaluate the political state of rs21, the extent to which any measurable progress has been made over what will then be a three-year period of existence.